

Dear Kwit,

We are delighted to confirm your participation as a company collaborator for the UX/UI Bootcamp Final Projects at Ironhack.

Here are the agreement conditions:

Company Agreement

- Meet students for a kick-off meeting on Friday, 7th of May. Prepare and share all relevant information for the project.
- Be available for at least two online feedback sessions between Monday 10th May and Friday 20th of May.
- Attend the final project presentation (internal hackshow) on Friday 21st of May.
- Company agrees that students may include this project in their portfolio, subject to the following conditions:
 - Information regarding third party companies will be removed.
 - Your company logo can be included in the project presentation and portfolio.
- If the company requires students to sign extra documentation and agreements (NDAs, etc.) it will be previously communicated to the Program Manager and students before the project begins.
- Company agrees that students can present this project at the Ironhack Hackshow on Friday 21st of May (open to the public).

Student Agreement

- Address the company's guidance and requests.
- This is a school project, not a job, therefore no compensation will be exchanged.
- Students agree that the company may use the solution (or not) as they see fit, and that ownership of the work product will be assigned in whole to the company.
- Students agree to meet all deadlines in the project and present their work to the company (internal hackshow).
- Students agree that no third party company information will be included in the project presentation or portfolio.

From Ironhack,
